We Mourn the Loss of Profits.

GREAT FIFTY CENTS ON THE DOLLAR

SALE OF CLOTHING

We are going to make some improvements in our store room after January 1st. The contract is signed and sealed with the contractors—consequently we are compelled to sell our stock or pack it away. We prefer selling it at a sacrifice.

NOTHING RESERVED.

Every suit of Clothes, every Overcoat, every Pair of Pants marked in plain figures. We will just split them in half. This means 50 cents on the dollar. The cheapest sale of fine ready made Clothing in Kentucky.

Our business is not conducted by fakes and guessing schemes. The man that's selling watch chains on the street corner for $1, throwing in a watch just to show his generosity, needs watching. "Bunco Stealers," "Razzle Dazzle" tricksters and green goods sharps always promise great returns from small investments. Intelligent minds are on to the racket, and take no stock in such humbuggery. 'Tis value they want.

100 CENTS WORTH OF GOODS

FOR 100 CENTS IN CASH

Is what we give the people. But at this sale

100 CENTS WORTH AT 50 CENTS ON THE DOLLAR!

Every article in our establishment is ticketed at the lowest price possible. The stamp of durability is on every garment.

If you have not dealt with us, ask your neighbor, who has. We invite you to our store, feeling assured that you will be pleased with our garments and satisfied with the matchless values we offer.

STATE SUNSHINE AND SHADOW.

THE United States Court is in session at Covington this week.

LOUIS THORNTON was shot and killed by Wm. H. Williamson at Newport last week.

JOHN CAUFIELD, of Louisville, was last week stabbed by his son, with whom he had a quarrel.

JUDGE DEHAVEN has been appointed by Gov. Brown to try the Moore-Showers case at Elizabethtown.

MRS. LAURA ROGERS, who died at Lexington last week, left $100,000 to two Mississippi nephews named Warfield.

THREE persons died of apoplexy at Paris last week, viz: Eli M. Kennedy, Simon Current and James Stephenson.

THE Postoffice at Falmouth has been raised from the fourth class to a Presidential office, dating from Jan. 1, 1892.

A FIRE in Greenup County last week destroyed several shock of corn and hay stacks. It was the work of incendiaries.

GOV. BROWN has fixed February 5th as the date of execution of Wm. Puckett, for the murder of Henry Hall, in Estill County.

KENTUCKY cities of the fifth class were to send delegates to Louisville on Wednesday to confer about a charter for said cities.

JUDGE W. O. HARRIS, of Louisville, is prominently mentioned as the successor to John A. Minor, the veteran Professor of Law at the University of Virginia.

THE remains of Major George W. McKee, U. S. A., were incinerated at Samson's Crematory, near Pittsburgh, Thursday last, and the ashes were sent to Lexington for burial.

THE Town Marshal of Glasgow last week arrested three strange negroes at that place for holding up and robbing a man and attempting to rob Conductor Lloyd, of the Mammoth Cave Road.

THE Court of Appeals last week fell into line with the new Constitution, by the adoption of a rule ordering that all petitions for a rehearing shall be considered by a Judge other than the one who delivered the opinion in the case.

THE Three Forks Deposit Bank, of Beattyville, has brought suit against the Ohio Valley Improvement and Contract Company and the Louisville Trust Company, its assignee, for judgment on two protested notes of $1,536.45 each, and mechanical lien.

W. G. HOLLOWAY, one of the election officers in the Louisville City election recently, was last week arrested, charged with forgery, perjury and violating the election laws. So it seems, after all, that the kangaroo ballot was not a success in the Falls City, at least.

ED POOL and Wm. Fisher, 14-year old boys, narrowly escaped drowning in the river at Louisville last Thursday. The current was too strong for them and drifted their frail boat onto the falls. The Life Savers went to their rescue and saved them by throwing out a rope.

THE trial of Wils Howard, the outlaw of this State, for murder in Missouri, was last week continued in the Lebanon (Mo.) Circuit Court until the February term. In the meantime Wils will remain in the St. Louis Jail for safe-keeping. There are 70 witnesses in the Missouri case against Howard.

THE Court of Appeals on Thursday last, in an opinion by Judge Lewis, affirmed the judgment of the City Court of Louisville in imposing a fine of $55 each against the Kentucky and University Clubs of Louisville for unlawfully keeping a club-room wherein malt and spirituous liquors are sold by retail without first having obtained the $200 license required in the city ordinance.

THE bondholders intend to ask Judge Barr, of the U. S. Court, to permit the Receiver of the Richmond, Nicholasville, Irvine and Beattyville Railroad, Mr. MacLeod, to issue certificates to the amount of $100,000 or $150,000, which, added to the $365,000 yet due in county subscriptions, will pay for the completion of the road. The construction company has contracted with Mallory, Cushing & Co., of Omaha, to take these unpaid county subscriptions and $100,000 more, making $465,000, to complete the road, and the Court will be asked to confirm this.

"Seeing is Believing."

And a good lamp must be simple; when it is not simple it is not good. Simple, Beautiful, Good—these words mean much, but to see "The Rochester" will impress the truth more forcibly. All metal, tough and seamless, and made in three pieces only, it is absolutely safe and unbreakable. Like Aladdin's of old, it is indeed a "wonderful lamp," for its marvelous light is purer and brighter than gas light, softer than electric light and more cheerful than either.

Look for this stamp—THE ROCHESTER. If the lamp dealer has not the genuine Rochester, and the style you want, send to us for our new illustrated catalogue, and we will send you a lamp safely by express—your choice of over 2,000 varieties from the Largest Lamp Store in the World.
